Recognition of Canadian and Australian Dietitians for Registration

CDO is pleased to announce that 9 of the 10 Canadian dietetic regulatory bodies have signed a recognition agreement with the Dietetic Association of Australia. This enables mobility of RDs between the two countries.

Accredited Professional Dietitians (APD) from Australia can obtain a Temporary Certificate of Registration and write the Canadian Dietetic Registration Examination without having an education equivalency assessment. Canadian RDs can also write the Australian professional exam and become an APD without having an education equivalency assessment.
